LIFE IN BALI – Photography exhibition by Michael Johnsey

Launch event on Saturday, 15 October, 17:00-19:00

Beautiful and mesmerising in its simplicity, soulful, and revealing a great stories, the latest photo exhibition on bridges' walls is a celebration of life.

bridges Bali is pleased to welcome back photographer Michael Johnsey for his second exhibition at the restaurant. The British photographer, currently living in Bali, loves to spend time amongst people, recording everyday events, capturing moments that can be easily missed. The result is a series of images that are not just technically correct, but also have a soul and reveal a personality or mood.

Life in Bali photography exhibition displays twenty six images of ordinary people leading ordinary lives in moments of labor, rest, play and prayer. Most of them are black-white images and printed on very finest quality using 310gsm German Etching paper from the Hanhemuehle Digital Fine Art range.

True to bridges' tradition to support those less fortunate, Life in Bali exhibition raises funds to support SOLEMEN Indonesia Foundation by donating 20% of sales proceed. The charity's mission is to help the disadvantaged in Bali.

The exhibition is launched on Saturday, 15 October 2016 in DIVINE wine and cocktail bar, from 17:00 – 19:00

The exhibition opening hours are from 11:00 – 23:00 daily.
