THE FOOD GURU

With his catchphrase of “mak nyus” labeled on every food he finds delightful, Bondan Winarno, an Indonesian culinary expert, shares

Bali's culinary heritage in a book titled “100 Mak Nyus Bali”. The book is his latest collaboration with Harry Nazarudin and Lidia Tanod, following their successful teamwork in establishing a food community called Jalansutra and making the “100 Mak Nyus Jakarta” book. For the “100 Mak Nyus Bali”, the trio went through all parts of the island to compile the 50 best Balinese restaurants and the 50 best international restaurants. Flipping through these books, readers will find all descriptions complete with photos, recipes, locations, and GPS coordinates.

FINE WINE

Known as one of the hippest spots in the gastronomy scene, Ubud now welcomes Divine, a wine bar located right below the notable Bridges restaurant. Sitting next to the Tjampuhan Bridge, guests will enjoy sipping a glass (or more) of wine while embracing the sights and sounds of the river that beautifully rhymes with the well-selected tunes at Divine. The wine collection is extensive – they have up to 330 labels, making Divine one of the most complete wine bars in Bali. Also, don't forget to try one or two of their groovy cocktails and enjoy the food created by Executive Chef Miles Belfield, who has worked in many remarkable award-winning restaurants in Bali and London.
